seigniorage rates as above; and all persons engaged in such felling or burning shall abide by the terms of the license and by such directions as the Deputy Commissioner may, with the approval of the Conservator of Forests, lay down as regards the class or classes of trees to be felled and the manner in which they shall be cut and removed.

3. If within the time specified in the license, the holder thereof fails to remove firewood or charcoal, the license shall become null and void and the licensee shall not have any right to the refund of the fee.

4. The whole quantity covered by license shall be removed in one lot and at one time.

5. The license-holder shall have no right to claim firewood or charcoal from a forest other than the one named in his license on the ground that he failed to obtain the quantity in that forest.

6. The maximum number of cart-loads to be removed under one license shall be 25, and no licenses shall be granted in a closed forest.

7. It shall be competent for the Deputy Commissioner to close any forest or parts thereof to the public and prohibit therein all cutting of firewood or burning of charcoal.

8. Any person found cutting or burning in, or removing firewood or charcoal from, a closed forest or removing the same from the forest allotted in excess of the number of cart-loads covered by the license, or any person removing firewood or charcoal under a time-expired license shall be deemed to have cut and removed such firewood or charcoal without a license.

9. No paid license shall be granted for cutting or burning and removing firewood or charcoal from the jungle tract set apart for the bonâ fide use of the cultivating raiyats.

10. These rules, so far as they prescribe seigniorage, shall not affect existing privileges of kandayam-paying raiyats and of mohatarfa-paying iron-smelters and iron-smiths to get firewood or charcoal free for their own bonâ fide private use. Such persons (excepting raiyats whose privileges will be withheld if abuse be committed) shall be bound to obtain free licenses for cutting firewood and to abide by the terms of such licenses. Firewood or charcoal obtained free shall not be sold, bartered or otherwise used for purposes of trade.

11. The following kinds of trees shall not be felled or burnt for firewood or charcoal :—

Reserved kinds.

Sandal, teak, poon, blackwood, honne, jalari, nandi, hebhalasu, karachi, bili-matti, karimatti and ebony.

Unreserved kinds.

Hunal, masi, hettiga, jambi, bilvara, tadasal, mavu, hunse, kendal, nerle, bagi, hadaga, bharangi, sampige, nanja, gundi, vate, alalekayi, cinnamon, kachu, geru and gamboge.

12. All firewood or charcoal felled or burnt on private or inam lands and removed for sale or otherwise shall be covered by a free pass to be obtained from the Amildar or District Forest Officer or other official duly authorized in that behalf by the Deputy Commissioner of the district, and, when so covered, the same shall be exempted from seigniorage above prescribed.
